

FOLD EXCLUSIVE SHIRAZ

2021 Shiraz	$38	A cooler season for Shiraz provided naturally acidity and allowed longer hang time, resulting in ripe forest fruits, cinnamon, oak spice and a gentle, peppery character. A touch of Viognier in the blend and 11 months in 33% new oak ensure lifted aromas and a toasty tannin.
2020 Shiraz	$48	A near-perfect growing season consisting of ideal spring conditions, a hot December to push along véraison followed by milder conditions, ensuring steady fruit development and ripening. The result is concentrated, full-flavoured Shiraz, with plenty of dark berry fruit, soft spice and silky, fine tannins. 100% Shiraz it matured for 12 months in 29% new French oak.
2019 Shiraz	$55	An elegant Shiraz with energy and drive from an unusually cool and late growing season. Bursting with red berries and rhubarb, hints of black olive and white pepper spice. Crafted from 100% Shiraz with 12 months maturation in French and Hungarian oak, of which 44% was new.
2018 Shiraz	$62	2018 shows what a warm season can achieve – amazing fruit concentration, yet with the classic elegance of a Margaret River Shiraz. Rich, juicy dark berry fruits, hints of earth and spice and savoury, layered tannins. Co-fermented with a touch of Viognier for aromatic lift, it spent 12 months in 34% new French and Hungarian oak.
2017 Shiraz	$65	There's an understated elegance in how Shiraz from a cooler growing season reveals itself over time. The 2017 vintage has retained its vibrancy, with floral notes rolling into bright, berry fruits, peppery spice and a long, savoury finish. 100% Shiraz, destemmed, but not crushed and fermented cooler to maintain aromatics. Matured in a combination of new, one- and two-year-old oak for 12 months.
